

Ceann Sibeal Golf Club: Europes Most Westerly Golf Course

All Ireland Golf.com

The Ceann Sibeal Golf Club was founded in 1924 and has been designed by Eddie Hackett and Chris O'Connor Jr.

Going to the course alone offers a magnificent landscape and scenery that can take anyone's breath away, the dingle probably offers the most serene and virginal scenery in all of Ireland.

The course itself has been painstakingly shaped from the vast un-spoilt landscape of Ireland. Challenges and hazards come naturally in the Ceann Sibeal Golf Club with a twisting burn that runs across the entire course.

Each hole promises a different vista like bays hidden in corners revealing a fishing village, magnificent topographies rolling and swaying with the lands, and a mesmerizing view of the Blasket Islands of the Atlantic Ocean. A day in the Ceann Sibeal Golf Club would offer an experience even a seasoned traveling golfer will never forget.
